

Meet your Survivor Outreach Services Staff

Lori Dean, Survivor Outreach Services Support Coordinator, came on board in December 2012. She has an extensive background in Army Family Programs, and is passionate about helping Families get what they need. She holds an MBA in Organizational Psychology and Development.

Ray Stokes, Survivor Outreach Services Support Coordinator, came on board in July 2012. He is retired Army with an extensive background in Casualty Assistance. He is extremely knowledgeable about benefits and entitlements, and has the connections to assist Surviving Families ensure they are receiving everything they are entitled to.

SPC Ben Manthe, Wounded Warrior, Tribute Video Producer, came on board in January 2013. He is an active duty Soldier who wants to give back to our Surviving Families by creating tribute videos for our Fallen Heroes. Stay tuned for more information on how to get one for your Hero!

Shelley Cook, Gold Star Widow, Social Media Volunteer. Shelley came to us in January 2013, and has taken over our Facebook page to make it even more informative! She also assists in the office and provides the staff with the much needed Widow perspective. She spends a lot of her time corralling her three large dogs.
