GENERAL BULLETIN NO. 4298

DATE: October 18, 2000
TO: All Ansul Authorized Distributors
FROM: Gary Nadolny
SUBJECT: "Ansul Belgium" Fire Extinguisher Incident

We have recently received reports that a fire extinguisher, being used to extinguish a small fire, suddenly exploded, resulting in the operator's death from flying debris. We have been informed that the incident occurred in The Netherlands on August 25, 2000; although this information has not been confirmed. Based on photographs we have received, we believe that the extinguisher was manufactured by "Ansul Belgium."

We want to make it perfectly clear that ANSUL INCORPORATED DOES NOT MANUFACTURE "ANSUL BELGIUM" FIRE EXTINGUISHERS. "ANSUL BELGIUM" is not affiliated with either Ansul Incorporated (Ansul) or Tyco International (US) Inc.

We believe that those requesting further information should speak with Mr. Henri Dermul at "Ansul Belgium" in Brussels. Phone: 32-2-467-7211. Fax: 32-2-466-4456. E-mail: ansul@ibm.net.
